REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET,

TURPENTINE-Has ruled rather steady for the week ended to-day, and quotations at the close of yesterday show an advance of 5 cents on the soft and hard article over last Thursday's rates. There has been a good enquiry for the article throughout the week, and the receipts and sales foot up 5,-

Bbls. Virgin and Yellow dip. Hard. Friday......$3 75@3 80.....$2 15@2 20 Saturday ... 553 ... 3 80 ... 2 15 accounts are made out and ready for set Monday ... 1,932 ... 3 80 ... 2 15@2 20 fully request their immediate attention. Thursday... 182....... 3 80........... 2 20 The article is in fair demand this morning, and the sale quoted above was made at $3 80 for soft, and $2 20 for hard, with the privilege of the advance (if any) to-day. None on

SPIRITS TURFENTINE .- The market for this article ruled RESH AND PRIME .- Just in time. 20 Bags Rio Cof- steady at last week's quotation, (61 cents.) up to the close fee; 15 kegs fresh Goshen Butter; 25 boxes Cheese; 15 of Tuesday last, when the price advanced 1@2 cents, and refused for a lot of 500 bbls., and holders generally were asking 64@65 cents. The transactions of the week foot up 1,-973 bbls., tiz:

Friday 400 bbls. 61 cents @ gallon-bbls. included. Saturday 320 " 61 " Monday 413 " 61 Tuesday 400 "61, 62@63c. " do. wednesday.. 430 " 63 cents " No transactions have been made this morning up to the time of closing our enquiries that we hear of, and the supply in first hands is light. Rosin-Has been almost entirely neglected for the week nothing has been done in the Common article, and all defiand -holders are offering to sell at $1 10 for large size bbls., but no buyers at this price. We note sales on Tuesday of 350 bbls. No. 1 at $1 50 to $2 75 @ bbl., as to quality; and 200 do. No. 2 at $1 15 $ bbl .- and dull. TAR .- Since our last review the price has advanced 5 cents, and sales have been made of 652 bbls. at $2 30@$2 35

bbl. The market is firm at latter figure, and the article in Corron - Since our last review some small parcels of Cotton have come in, and we note sales on Friday of 12 bales mixed quality at 91 cents; on Monday of 69 do. at 9 @10 cents, and Tuesday, a small parcel at 94 cents @ lb., as in ceiving in store large additions to their stock of Grocer- quality. There is a good demand for the article, and it withered arm of memory seems again restored and strengthsells quick at above figures

CORN MEAL-We have no alteration to note in our figures Bacon, Lard, Soap, Candles, Oils, Paints, Glass, Nails, and for this article. There is a moderate supply in store, and COFFEE-In this article we note no change this week .-Sales from store at quotations, in lots to suit. See table. FEATHERS-Are very scarce, and we know of little or none in market. They are much wanted, and sell readily at 55 > store, and sales are being made at quotations, as in quantity led pictures or not. Mr. H. is acknowledged to be the best and quality. The receipts of Fayetteville brands during the Daguerreotypist in the State. since our last review, as in quantity; sells from store by the single bbl. at $7.

FIGH-There have been no receipts of Mullets since our last that we know of, and our quotations are for store rates. GRAIN-In CORN we note the receipt since last review of a cargo of 1500 bushels, which sold on Monday at 75 cents; and 500 do. per railroad, on Tuesday, which brought 85 cts. bushel. The supply in store is very light, and a good demand exists. Two or three cargoes would meet with sale at high figures. ——OATS—No receipts, and the article is in demand; very little or none in dealers' hands, and sells at 60 cents & bushel, from store. RICE-There is a good supply of clean in store, and we note only small sales to retail-THE subscriber will give the above reward of Five Don-tares of the control of the recovery of his that we hear of ——Peas—Ground Peas continue to come HOUND DOG, which strayed off while at Kenansville. Sep- in freely, and sell at 90 cents @ $1 7 bushel, as in quality. HAY-Since our last review we note about 300 bales hav ing been received, and sales as follows: On Monday, 150 bales Northern make at $1; and Tuesday, 150 do. Eastern make at $1 171 7 100 lbs. Fair supply in dealers' hands, and demand limited. LIQUORS-Store price for Whiskey has advanced a shade. LUMBER-River-Eight rafts have been received since last review, only four of which have been sold at $8 for scantling, and $13 7 M. for flooring boards; balance unsold on market.

Molasses-No receipts this week. Former receipts sell from store and wharf at quotations, as in quantity. POTATOES-Sweet come in gradually and sell at 50 @ 75 cents ? bushel, from carts and boats. There is a moderate supply of Irish potatoes in store, and sales at $2 25 @ $2 50 PROVISIONS-In BACON we have no alteration to note. The apply of N. C. make continues heavy, and sales extremely dull at quotations; our highest figures are for a prime artiabout fair, and store rates without change ; sells by the blid. made to
